A Mayor-Council form of government is used in Brookwood. Brookwood facilities include a modern Town Hall that houses the city government, police department, and volunteer fire department and an expansive area of parkland. The Town recently purchased seventy-four acres that adjoin the park.